

My wife and I were upset about reading in the paper this morning that the FCC might overrule WI law at the request of the bankers. No way. We would like our laws to be even tougher. We don't need calls from charity or politicians. Please do not force us to take the weaker federal standard. We value our privacy. As I am sure do 98% of those who signed the WI no-call list.

Mike and Marge Bork